Free divisors in a pencil of curves

Abstract: A plane curve C over a field of characteristic zero is free if its associated sheaf of tangent vector fields is a free module. In this talk I'll prove that a union D of curves of a pencil of plane projective curves with a smooth base locus is a free divisor if and only if D contains all the singular members of the pencil and its Jacobian ideal is locally a complete intersection.